Drenched with Divine Love, this book challenges the sinner psychology which has been injected in the human mind through various religious dogmas. This sinner psychology like a cancer destroys the mental, emotional and spiritual blossoming of the human personality thus rendering it ripe for exploitation. Such dangerous dogmas destroy the natural joyfulness of every human being who is born from Divine Bliss and whose destiny it is to merge with that Divine Bliss. This book does not just merely liberate humanity from the shackles of self-hatred, it enables the reader to know what it means to cry tears of Bliss while immersed in the presence of Divine Love.

“You should remember that if you don’t help humanity, who else is to come and shoulder the responsibility? It is you - you are to do everything. You are the torch-bearers of human civilization. You are the pioneers of human march, and you are the vanguard of a new civilization.” Shrii Shrii Ánandamúrti
