Madalasa the Movie - based on the true story of the Princess of the Gandharvas who married King Citrasena of Kashi . The story is recorded in the Markandeia Puranas and it is of perennial inspiration for all women giving importance to their special role in childhood education.

As the project proceeds we have opened a website at <http://madalasa.ampsnews.org> where there are all the references and particularly the script which is at present the main focus of attention. We are looking for volunteers able to assist in all the phases of film making. Refer to prs.nys@gmail.com
